COURT ORDER / JUDGMENT

The court finds, orders, and adjudges that:

1. The defendant has waived a hearing. This waiver is free and voluntary and is a stipulation to grant the relief requested.
2. The Department's request is justified. The relief requested is in the best interests of the defendant and the community.
3. The defendant's probation is extended for _____ years, _____ months, from (current discharge date) _____ to (new discharge date) _____; or until all court obligations are completed, whichever comes first. This extension will serve the purposes for which probation was imposed.
4. Judgment is granted against the defendant in favor of the victim(s) listed in paragraph 4 above for the amount unpaid.
The clerk is directed to enter this judgment on the judgment and lien docket without fee.
- 5a. Judgment is granted against the defendant for unpaid court ordered financial obligations in the amount of $_____.
The clerk is directed to enter this judgment on the judgment and lien docket without fee. Twelve percent (12%) interest will be added from the date of entry of judgment.
- 5b. All remaining court ordered financial obligations of the defendant are waived.

Rights Being Waived

- I have a right to a hearing before the court on whether the Department's request should be granted.
- I have a right to be represented by an attorney and, if I cannot afford an attorney, one will be appointed for me.
- At a hearing, the Department would have to show that I have the ability to pay and that an extension will further my rehabilitation as well as the interests of the community.
- If I waive these rights, the court can enter an order extending my probation or enter a judgment against me.
